Special Thank You

I am very thankful for the love and support I have received from all the members of the three Parishes (New All Saints, St. Edward, and St. Gregory the Great) and in a special way the members of the Jubilee Committee for the wonderful time they volunteered to make the celebration a wonderful and memorable event. I pray that God will continue to reward you for your love and care towards me and your support towards my dream healthcare projects at the AIHWA Hope Center in Nigeria. In Christ, Fr. Kenny

Please contact Janice Greene (443) 253-1804, for information and Tickets.

Did You Know?

International Buy a Priest a Beer Day occurs annually on September 9th. It isn't officially commemorated by any Christian denomination. However, it is still a day when Catholics build relationships with their priests by taking them out for a beer, showing appreciation, and sharing how their ministry has been important to them. If you can't take your priests out, then offer a prayer for them or give them a thank you note.

St. Vicent DePaul During the month of September SVDP will collect new blankets and throws for people in need. A box for your donation is located in the rear hallway of the church. Thanks for your support

SAVE THE DATE

October 1-11, 2025 – Trip to Greece, 11days/9 nights. An initial deposit of $400 for registrations is currently being accepted. Cost $5,095pp double occupancy, includes air, 7 nights lodging, 2 nights cruise, meals, tips, and tours. Contact Gloria Herndon for additional information at (410) 542-0445.

23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

All of us at one time or the other come to moments when we say, "Gosh! How I wish my brother/sister could see this or hear that! Gosh! how I wish my Dad or Mom would be alive to see what I have become, etc. All these gosh outbursts speak about some things delightful we have come to experience and wish that others close to us would have the same experience. On a deeper thought, these gosh moments begin with a dream followed by some action to get to the dreams. Today's Scripture readings began with the dream of the Prophet Isaiah about what God will do for those whose hearts are frightened—like people who are giving up their dreams due to the circumstances they found themselves in. He prophesied to them that God will come with His divine vindication and recompense. He then encouraged them on a lifestyle to be able to realize that dream. These days of politicking we will hear so much about dreams, and often, without articulate works needed to realize them. However, the best of dreams are those that help us to see better than before, know better than before, and to be able to speak now more than before with our heads held high. Our second reading tells us that the path to our spiritual dreams of divine approval is paved by good works to other people and accepting of all as we are as children of God. Lastly, the friends of the deaf and dumb man who brought him to Jesus expressed the "gosh" moment if their friend could hear Jesus and speak in praise of God. And let's be honest: is there no one you know who you can say: Gosh I wish she/he could hear the word of God and praise God than hear only anti-religious groups and speak only in hateful language about God and Religion. If there is, will you bring that person to Church next week? Buy that person a good spiritual book or a spirit-filled song/DVD? You can do it; and that may be the gosh moment those people are waiting for. As the schools blossom again life has returned in most institutions of the American life. Let's use this time to lead others to their gosh moments. And may God bless you as you do this, Amen.
