My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Grace and peace be with you on this joyous feast of the Baptism of the Lord! Today, we celebrate the moment when our Lord Jesus Christ stepped into the waters of the Jordan River, humbling Himself to be baptized by John. This profound act marks the beginning of His public ministry and reveals the depth of God's love for us. In that moment, the heavens opened, and the voice of the Father declared, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased" (Matthew 3:17).

As we reflect on this sacred event, we are reminded of our own baptism. Through the waters of baptism, we were cleansed, reborn, and welcomed into the family of God. It is through this sacrament that we receive the gift of the Holy Spirit, who strengthens us to live as disciples of Christ, bearing witness to His love and mercy in our daily lives.

This feast is also a call to renew our baptismal promises. As we journey through life, let us strive to live out the mission to which we are called—to be light in a world that often walks in darkness, to love as Christ has loved us, and to serve as He served.

I encourage each of you to take time this week to reflect on the significance of your own baptism. Consider how the grace of that sacrament has shaped your journey of faith and how you can share that grace with others. Let us also pray for those preparing for baptism, that they may come to know the joy and peace of life in Christ.

As we gather this Sunday to celebrate the Eucharist, let us thank God for the gift of His Son and the grace of our baptism. May the Holy Spirit empower us to live as beloved children of God, bringing His love to all we encounter. With prayers and blessings,

Rev. Fr. Kenny Udumka
