WEEKLY REFLECTION

Dear Beloved Parishioners of New All Saints,

Grace and peace to you on this blessed day as we celebrate the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord! Today, we are invited to reflect on a moment filled with promise, joy, and revelation as we journey with Mary and Joseph to the temple, where they present the infant Jesus to the Lord in accordance with the law.

In the Gospel of Luke, we meet Simeon, a man of great faith and righteousness, who had waited patiently for the fulfillment of God's promise. When he took the child Jesus into his arms, he declared, "My eyes have seen your salvation, which you have prepared in the sight of all nations: a light for revelation to the Gentiles and the glory of your people Israel."

This moment reminds us that God's light shines not just for some but for all, breaking through the darkness of despair, division, and uncertainty. Simeon's faith reminds us to remain steadfast, trusting in God's promises even in our waiting seasons.

As we gather to celebrate this feast, I invite you to bring your lives, joys, and struggles before the Lord, just as Mary and Joseph did. Let us offer our hearts in thanksgiving for the light of Christ, who has come to guide us, comfort us, and draw us closer to God's glory.

May today be a renewal of our hope in the light of Christ that cannot be extinguished, no matter the trials we face. May we, like Simeon, bear witness to God's salvation and share that light with others in our homes, our parish, and our community.

Let us recommit ourselves to being bearers of God's light, trusting that He is with us in every step of our journey. May the Lord bless you abundantly and may the light of Christ illuminate your path always.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Kenny Udumka
Pastor, New All Saints
Church
