WEEKLY REFLECTION: THE TRANSFIGURATION - A GLIMPSE OF GLORY

Dear Beloved in Christ,

This Sunday, we reflect on the powerful moment of the Transfiguration, where Jesus takes Peter, James, and John up the mountain to pray. In their time of prayer, His glory is revealed, His face changes, and His clothes become dazzling white. Moses and Elijah appear, speaking of His impending journey to Jerusalem. The disciples, though weary, witness something extraordinary—a glimpse of God’s divine glory in Christ.

This passage reminds us of three important truths in our faith journey:

Prayer Transforms Us.

Jesus goes up the mountain to pray, and in that sacred moment, His true glory is revealed. Prayer is not just a routine but an encounter with God that can change us. In our own lives, when we take time to pray, God opens our eyes to His presence and strengthens us for the journey ahead.

Faith Requires Us to Be Awake.

The disciples were “weighed down with sleep” but managed to stay awake and witness this revelation. How often do we let the distractions and burdens of life keep us spiritually asleep? Jesus calls us to stay alert—to recognize His presence in our daily lives and to respond with faith.

As we continue our Lenten journey, may we go up the mountain in prayer, remain spiritually awake, and listen to Christ with open hearts. Like the disciples, may we leave our sacred encounters renewed, ready to follow Him more faithfully.
